POLLING

Gen AI needs extensive real-time data from your business applications and data sources to provide meaningful and accurate outputs.

Data Democratisation is about the ability of the business to get the insights they need and at the speed they need.

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Boston Consulting Group recently reported that 89% of organisations surveyed are ranking AI and GenAI as one of their top-three tech priorities for 2024. What challenges and opportunities do you see in the insurance market for its adoption?

Where can Ai help us with data in the London Market?
