THE 2017 MARKET PEOPLE AWARDS

TIME TO RECOGNISE OUR MARKET STARS!

THE LONDON MARKET FORUMS
BRINGING INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS TOGETHER

“THE FRIENDLY AWARDS”

You are warmly invited to the 2nd Annual Market People Awards on Wednesday 13th December 2017, brought to you by London Market Forums, the highly popular networking and thought leadership group for insurance professionals and those supplying this important trading community with valuable products and services.

Each year, LMForums brings people together from all corners of the Market to recognise individuals, teams and companies who have made an outstanding contribution in the industry. This could be a graduate who has excelled in their first year or a CEO who has turned a company around or even a team who has introduced a new exciting product for clients.

We are operating an open online nomination system until late November, allowing any firm or industry practitioner to nominate an individual or team or company. Six independent senior level Market executives will then assess all nominations and select twelve worthy candidates to be presented with a coveted award.
